A BIG DOCKET.

The Talent Case in Circuit Court Resulted in a Hung Jury.

Circuit court met Monday with the scholarly and dignified Judge Fox on the bench. An unusual power of legal and forensic talent has been at the bar.

The case against J. W. Tallent, for brutal punishment of a pupil occupied Monday and a part of Tuesday. The jury failed to agree and the case will be tried at the September term. The case was appealed from Justice Bowman's court where Tallent had been fined $5. The particulars are familiar to readers of this paper.

Roy Rose, Theodore Adams, Tom Statler, Rayford Robinson, Payne Horn and Henry Hair were fined for carrying pistols and went to jail Tuesday on failure to pay the fines. John Winters and Henry Berry, jr. were fined for disturbing the peace; Hosey Seabangh and Will Cook, were fined for disturbing public worship. David Hart was fined for assault, Ed Seabangh was fined for running a horse on the public highway. They all went to jail Tuesday.

The trial of Tom Killian charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses, which occupied almost all of Wednesday resulted in an acquittal.

H. J. Klene's new house on Bass avenue is going up rapidly.

A Fruit Farm.

Dr. E. P. Biggs informs the editor that he will at once set out on his farm west of town 200 fine Wine-sap apple trees. In the fall he will plant about 700 more of late variety. The doctor has recently bought the farm. He is a progressive gentleman, and knows that fruit growing will pay big.

A Good Play.

"The Turn of the Tide" was presented by local talent at the Lutesville opera house last Saturday night. The play was good. The author was supported by good stage work, and scenic effects. The characters were well delineated, and the crowded audience cheered to the echo.

The specialties in song by Misses Rosa Fischer and Sue Belle Graves and Mr. Charles Revelle were worth repetition several times over.

H. F. Steele has purchased a house from J. H. Lutes, located on east Union avenue.

Hog Creek School.

The hog creek school closed Saturday after a six months' term taught by J. W. Tallent. The years work has been highly satisfactory.

The term report shows: Enrollment 60, teachers 1, days attended by all pupils 4067, average days attended per pupil 67 and 47-60, average attendance 84 and 55-118, days taught 118.

Ladies can get buttons made to order to match any kind of cloth, of Mr. Schivering at the Bollinger county clothing store.

John Collins was very sick the first of the week.

See Frank Colewood, country gentleman at opera house tonight.

Dr. C. M. Witmer, and H. M. Smith have moved into their new residences in the Smith-Witmer block.

To the Trade.

Thanking you for a most generous patronage the past year, we are pleased to announce that Miss Belle Bollinger has bought an interest in our millinery, where she will have charge of the trimming department, in which art, 'tis well known she excels, having had experience for a number of years in St. Louis and other cities. We cordially invite you to visit us in Lutesville on March 24, '94, on which date we will open a full stock of spring hats etc.

Respectfully, S. V. JAKUES.

Visiting Lawyers.

The visiting attorneys in attendance at circuit court this week are, M. R. Smith and Judge Carter of Farmington; Judge Nolle of Fredericktown; Judge Robert Wilson and B. F. Davis of Cape Girardeau; W. H. Miller of Jackson and A. J. Vance of Lowndes.

The Bollinger county clothing store now has Mr. Schivering, a competent tailor in its employ. You can get a first class tailor suit at home and avoid the uncertainty of chance fits.

Populists at Work.

The Populists of Bollinger county met in mass meeting at the court house Saturday, there being only about fifteen present.

Editor Scott Wilkinson addressed the meeting for about an hour, with much bad English, and some novel ideas. He was followed by William Kinder and Robert Hughey. A temporary central committee was chosen, and township meetings called for March 24, to elect permanent committeemen. The temporary committee is: T. H. Snider, chairman; R. J. Hughey, secretary, Lorraine township, A. L. Gibbs; J. C. Kegley, and C. P. Crump; Liberty No. 1, W. L. Scott; Crooked Creek, P. A. Haffer and Huffman. A. L. Gibbs was chosen a delegate to the State convention at Kansas City, March 27, 1894.
